★ SCHOLARSHIP POLICY ★

For the Academic Year 2026-27

SCHOLARSHIP POLICY-2026-27

The objective of this policy is to define the eligibility criteria for awarding scholarships to students who exhibit outstanding academic performance, exceptional skills, or require financial assistance. It is designed to support students in their educational journey while fostering a diverse and inclusive learning environment.

Scope:

This policy applies to all students enrolled in undergraduate programs at the University during the academic year 2026-27

Policy:

The University provides the following types of scholarships to students:

Merit-Based Scholarships:

Awarded to students who demonstrate outstanding academic performance, such as a high CGPA or exceptional test scores. All enrolled students at the university are eligible for these scholarships.

Need-Based Scholarships:

Awarded to students requiring financial assistance to continue their higher education. These scholarships are available to students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds, female students, candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes (SC) Scheduled Tribes (ST), Other Backward Classes (OBC), and differently abled students.

Community Merit Scholarships:

These scholarships support individuals from local communities, or specific regions associated with the institution, encouraging their academic growth and strengthening their ties with the university.

Talent-Based Scholarships:

Awarded to students with remarkable skills in sports, arts, music, or other specialized fields. These scholarships are available to all students enrolled in the university.

Eligibility Criteria:

- To be eligible for a scholarship, a student must meet the following conditions:
- Be enrolled full-time in a UG, PG program at the University.
- Demonstrate financial need (for need-based scholarships)
- Demonstrate academic achievement (for merit-based scholarships)
- Demonstrate exceptional talent (for talent-based scholarships)
- Shall not belong to the RTF category (student shall not belong from tuition fee reimbursement from the government)

Scholarship Amount:

The University has fixed scholarship amounts for each type of scholarship, based on available funding and the number of qualified candidates. The award amounts may vary from year to year, based on available funding and other factors. Any student can claim only one scholarship.
